FROM THE PASTOR

VISION

BY OSWALD CHAMBERS

I WAS NOT DISOBEDIENT TO THE VISION FROM HEAVEN. — ACTS 26:16

When Jesus Christ appeared to Paul and told him to preach the gospel, there was nothing hesitant about Paul's response: he obeyed, keeping the vision from heaven bright before him as he began fulfilling his commission (Acts 26:12-19). If we lose the vision, we alone are responsible; it means that we've been lax and careless in our spiritual lives. The only way to be obedient to the vision God sends is to give our utmost for his highest, and this can only be done by continually and resolutely recalling the vision, while working steadily to realize it. The test is to keep the vision in our sights not only during times of prayer and devotion but sixty seconds of every minute, sixty minutes of every hour. "Though it linger, wait for it" (Habakkuk 2:3). We cannot rush the fulfillment of a vision; we have to live in its light until it accomplishes itself through us. Sometimes, after we receive a vision, we grow impatient. We go racing off into practical work, hoping to speed things along. Then the work becomes our focus, and we lose sight of the vision. We don't even notice when it has been fulfilled! Working to realize the vision is necessary, but we must work steadily, without rush or force, and only when and where God chooses. Our ability to wait for the vision that lingers is a test of our loyalty to him. After God gives a vision to his disciple, he always sends a whirlwind, flinging his disciple to the place where the seed of the vision will take root and grow. Are you ready to be sown, so that the vision can fulfill itself through you? The answer depends on whether or not you're living in the light of what you've seen. Let God fling you out, and don't go until he does. If you try to dictate where you'll go, you'll prove empty. But if you let God sow you, you will bring forth fruit.

By Grace
Robbie
